

Pro-linearization of Teichmüller groups and profinite complexes of curves
Marco Boggi (U. Andes)

Abstract. We define a series of natural linear representations of the Teichmüller group such that the intersection of all their kernels is trivial. We then propose a natural set of questions on these representations which lead towards the subgroup congruence problem for the Teichmüller group.